CONTRIBUTIONS FOR FRUIT AND VEGETABLE RESEARCH AND EDUCATION

There is a line at the bottom of the registration form for making a contribution to the Michigan State Horticultural Society Trust Fund (fruit crops) and/or the Michigan Vegetable Council Fund (vegetable crops). These funds provide financial support for research and educational projects beneficial to fruit and vegetable growers. Contributions to these funds are deductible on federal income tax returns. Contributions to the Michigan Vegetable Council Fund are also eligible for Michigan income tax credits. You will receive a receipt by mail for your tax deductible contribution.

NORTH AMERICAN STRAWBERRY GROWERS ASSOCIATION (NASGA) MEMBERSHIP

To attend NASGA's education program and annual meeting on Monday, December 7, you need to pay 2010 membership dues. Business memberships for new members can be processed using this form. Farms, nurseries or other suppliers to the strawberry industry are eligible for business memberships. Current business members and new or current individual members need to make their 2010 dues payments directly to NASGA. The 2010 membership application form can be downloaded from the NASGA website (www.nasga.org). The membership application form is also available by contacting the NASGA Business Office, 30 Harmony Way, Kemptville, ON, Canada K0G 1J0, 613-258-4587 (phone), info@nasga.org (email).

The 2010 business membership dues for new members are $85 (for residents of the U.S., Canada and Mexico; dues are $95 for residents of other countries). Business membership includes newsletter subscription, Advances in Strawberry Research, reduced registration fees for the annual conference and summer tour, website listing, a Membership Resource Directory and voting privileges.

NASGA's website has a search feature where the public can "Find a Grower" or a grower can locate a supplier or industry expert. The information you provide for the NASGA database will also be used on the website and in the NASGA Membership Resource Directory. You can have your company logo included on the website by emailing it to NASGA. Contact NASGA (info@nasga.org, 616-258-4587) for questions or corrections to your information. If you prefer NOT to be listed on the website, check here ____.
